[The Dictionary of Egyptian Deities and Divine Designations (Lexikon der ägyptischen Götter und Götterbezeichnungen: LGG) comprises more than 5.500 pages or 16.500 columns, about 56.500 entries, almost 100.000 cross-references and approximately 200.000 citations. That makes it the largest reference-work of its kind in Egyptology. It includes all expressions which can in one way or other designate deities]

[The Dictionary of Egyptian Deities and Divine Designations is the essential guide to the thousands of gods and goddesses mentioned in Ancient Egyptian inscriptions and texts. Each of the 56,500 entries includes information about the variant spellings of the god's name, the date of references, information about the god's appearance (human, animal or mixed), indication of the relationship to other deities (most gods have sisters and brothers), bibliography and references. This essential reference work, the result of over 10 years work by German researchers, will appear in 7 volumes (organized in Egyptian alphabetical order) during 2002 and 2003. The text is in German]

*The Online Egyptological Bibliography (OEB) holds the largest available collection of references in Egyptological literature and is updated nearly every day. It includes the records and abstracts from Annual Egyptological Bibliography (AEB, 1947-2001), combined with Bibliographie Altägypten (BA, 1822-1946), the Agyptos database with keywords, and more than 30,000 further items. Coverage is from 1822 to the present. Enhancements are announced as they are introduced.
